Ward Councillor reports

1. Report submitted to the Clerk by Stevenson:

Peterborough Lions

The Peterborough Lions held their annual Santa Run on 19th December in Orton Wistow and raised £735 for the Amazon Children's Ward at Peterborough City Hospital and to help with the running costs of a community minibus. There will be a second Santa run on Friday 23rd December from 6pm around Orton Waterville village.

Showground Redevelopment

AEPG, the Showground operator, has now completed its pre-application public consultation process and will submit a planning application to Peterborough City Council in the New Year.

Local Police

Cllr Stevenson continues to work with Cambs Police and the council as they prepare their application to the court for an injunction to prevent anti-social use of cars in our ward.

2. Report submitted to the Clerk by Cllr Knight:

- We had a Santa sleigh on the 13th, and it was a great success over 500 children turned out.
- We did a Santa walk around North/Southgate - again good success.
- We've had some iron grills from the drains been stolen around Brimbles, most of them have been replaced and only a couple short. But I believe 6 in total had been stolen. Police are aware.

3. Report submitted to the Clerk by Cllr Day:

- I'm working on installing a bench in Wistow at the request of residents.
- I am working on getting some bushes cut back on a pathway in Wistow.
- Santa's Sleigh ride around Orton with Cross keys was very successful, with many families and children lining the streets to see Santa.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas, our Season's Greetings cards are being delivered around the ward.
